

Kedves Olvasó!

Megjelent a Journal of Eurasian Studies IV. évfolyam (2012.) 3. száma. A tartalom:

- FARKAS, Flórián: Dear Reader
- HISTORY
 - VERMAN, Sanghamitra Rai: Trade and Religion: Trade and Its Role in the Spread of Buddhism in China from India. (1st to 6th Century C.E.)
- LINGUISTICS
 - ТАМБОВЦЕВ, Юрий Алексеевич: “Этнографическая криминалистика: к какому народу ближе всего венгры по данным дактилоскопии?” [TAMBOVTSEV, Yuri: Ethnographic Criminalistics: to which People are the Hungarians Closer on the Basis of their Dactiloscopic Data?] (in Russian)
- POLITICS
 - MANTOO, Shahnawaz Ahmad: Bangladesh Illegal Immigration: Effects and Consequences
- SOCIOLOGY
 - BALÁZS, Lajos: Erotica, obscenitatea și pragmatismul țărănesc al dăinuirii [BALÁZS, Lajos: Eroticism, Obscenity and the Peasant Pragmatism of Survival] (in Romanian)
- LITERATURE & ARTS
 - MIRABILE, Paul: The Mediaeval Eurasian Koine: The Art of Philology
 - PLÁJÁS, Ildikó Zonga: A Different Lesson on History of Arts
- TRAVELOGUE
 - TAPON, Francis: Czech Republic — Eastern Europe’s Most Civilized Country
- CLASSICAL WRITINGS ON EURASIA
 - VÁMBÉRY, Ármin: In Herat and Beyond It
- CHRONICLE
 - OBRUSÁNSZKY, Borbála: In the Footsteps of Khasar in Inner Mongolia

A folyóirat a következő címen érhető el: <http://www.federatio.org/joes.html>

A Szerkesztőség

Hága, 2012. október 15.

