

Dear Reader,

The 2nd issue of the fifth volume (2013) of the Journal of Eurasian Studies was recently published. The content:

- FARKAS, Flórián: Dear Reader
- HISTORY
  - ARADI, Éva: About the Territory of Magna Hungaria
  - BÉRCZI, Szaniszló: Pict-Scythian Scottish Art
  - DREISZIGER, Nándor: The Hungarian Conquest of the Carpathian Basin, ca. 895-900: The Controversies Continue
- POLITICS
  - ASSYLTAJEVA, Elnura & TOLEN, Zhengisbek: Kazakhstan as a Model for Regulating Interethnic Relations
  - MISHRA, Manoj Kumar: Changing Role of Russia in Afghanistan after Soviet Disintegration
- ECONOMICS
  - NAMATOVA, Gulmira: Economic Relations between Turkey and Kyrgyzstan
- LITERATURE & ARTS
  - PLÁJÁS, Ildikó Zonga: Above the Technique
- TRAVELOGUE
  - MIRABILE, Paul: Voyage to the Holy City of Timbuktoo over the Western Sahara
- NEW BOOKS
  - FARKAS, Flórián: America's Black Sea Fleet
- CHRONICLE
  - MIRABILE, Paul: Istanbul Gezi Park: A Universal Message
- NEWS BRIEF (compiled and edited by ZOMBORI, Andor)

Supplement: MIRABILE, Paul: Voyage to the Holy City of Timbuktoo over the Western Sahara

The periodical can be accessed at: <http://www.federatio.org/joes.html>

With this issue we publish a supplement as well:

Z. TÓTH, Csaba: Floire et Blanceflor — A Mediaeval Legend

We also have released two electronic books:

CZEGLÉDI, Katalin: THE HUNGARIAN-TURKISH LANGUAGE RELATIONSHIP. Based on the Turkish Dictionary and Grammar of Mahmūd al-Kāšyari Vol. I-II.

These can be accessed at: http://www.federatio.org/mikes\_bibl.html#148

The Editors

The Hague, July 12, 2013

