

Content

STUDIES

Péter Alabán

The Visuality of Deindustrialization: Social Documentary Photography of a Former Factory Town, Worker Colonies and their Environment after the End of Communism in Hungary 9

Krisztina Kovács

Visual Representations of the Modern Metropolis. Interconnections of Literature and Fine Art Photography..... 36

Orsolya Milián

“We are looking at the photograph”: An Ekphrasis of an Iconic Press Photograph in Péter Farkas’ Short Novel Entitled “Creature”..... 57

Roland Perényi

The Role of Photography and Film in Post-World War I International Humanitarian Operations 70

Viktória Terendi

Components of a Photographic Pictorial Structure and their Characteristics – through Examples of 20th Century Family Photographs..... 90

Beatrix Visy

The Photograph as Mise en Abyme – „prose turn”, Photography as a Reflection of Mise en Abyme 113

COMMUNICATIONS

Krisztina Dezső

Visual Memories of a 20th doctor couple from Pécs. Photo albums of Béla Flerkó and Vera Bárdos 133

Zoltán György Fejér

Invention and Deployment. Conclusions of the Oeuvre of Photographer Jenő Dulovits 156

Gyöngyi Pál

Overview of Hungarian Photo literature in the Contemporary Post-media Age 169

Anna Peternák
„ Homo mensura ”	179
Dorottya Újvári
The Transylvanian Photographer Count: The Legacy of László Teleki	190
Ágnes Telek
The Current State and Future Possibilities of Photo Digitization in Public Collections, Regarding the Főfotó Collection	210

RETROSPECTIVE

„ For me, landscape and nature photography is the dearest ” Interview with Photographer György Mánfai (The interview was conducted by Krisztina Dezső and Zsuzsanna Gergely)	225
Endre Domaniczky
Condolence Letter of Ferenc Mádl to Ferenc Benedek’s Widow	250

REVIEW

Baliga Violetta
The Cornerstone of the first Hungarian National Photography Collection, Pál Rosti: Photographic Collection	270